Summary: Even before Hiccup met toothless, a young girl trained her own dragon. Now she has come to Burk to meet Hiccup. Unfortunately, she'll also cross paths with a certain Outcast!

The New Girl

So I based the OC (that's what there called right?) on myself cause I would love love love to train drangons and hang out with Hiccup (he is so cute) and all that good stuff.

Hiccup walked down to the forge early one morning. He had been working on a new tail for toothless and wanted to take it for a test flight. As he entered the small shack he was surprised to find a brunet girl, about the age of fourteen, sorting through the armor.

She heard the clank of his prosthetic foot and looked up, slightly embarrassed. "I'm sorry to snoop, but are you Hiccup."

"Um yeah. And you areâ€¦?"

"Palma"

"Just Palma? No last name or heroic title?"

"I left that all behind when I left my village."

"I knew I hadn't seen you in Burk before." Hiccup paused. "Why'd you leave? And why are you looking for me?"

Palma bit her lip. "They didn't understand me." Hiccup made an expression urging her to go on. "But before I tell you anything else, I need to make sure that you are in fact Hiccup Horrendous Haddock the third."

"That's me."

The girl shed her shyness and burst with excitement. "Oh! I'm so glad to finally meet you! When I heard about how you train dragons, I knew that I had to find you. I just knew you would understand what I was going through. I was also hoping maybe you could teach me about dragons, having Bork's book and all."

Hiccup interrupted the rambling Viking. "Wait, what do you mean 'what you're going through'? And how did you get to Burk all by yourself, by boat? Unlessâ€¦"

The biggest smile grew on her face. "That's right, I have a dragon."
